The Life That Flows: From Receiving to Reaching

Are you tired of treating your Christian faith like a checklist? Click the link to read this week's devotion and discover the life Jesus calls you into—joining His mission alongside other believers, receiving life and power as branches connected to the true vine, who is Jesus Himself.

Here's your invitation to the upcoming sermon!

The Rhythm of the Rested

Matthew 11:28-30

Mother's Day often comes with "Hallmark" sentimental sermons that can make you feel more diminished than inspired, leaving you with a checklist for a "perfect" life that doesn't exist. This Sunday, we're setting the checklists aside. Whether you are a weary mom or just someone exhausted by the "mental load" of life, Jesus' words in Matthew 11 offer a different path. This isn't a sermon about doing more; it's about the "rhythm of the rested."

Join us for a message for everyone—one that replaces the weight of performance with a yoke that actually fits. Come as you are, and catch your breath with us.

Women's Choice Network

An FPCB Disciple-Making Partner

Annual Special Offering for Women's Choice Network begins this Sunday and continues through the end of this month.

Women's Choice Network is dedicated to supporting women and families facing unexpected or unsupported pregnancies. They offer accurate, evidence-based information along with free services and practical help. Through compassionate, whole-person care, they come alongside each individual, providing the guidance and support needed to make informed choices about a future with a newborn child. No matter the situation, their mission is to encourage, equip, and empower women to thrive.

FPCB regards the Network to be one of our Disciple-Making partners because it provides bible studies and mentors to "would be" moms and dads.
